

ARTICLE APPEARED ON PAGE

A-5

WASHINGTON TIMES
13 JANUARY 1983

---

BRIEFLY / World

---

E. Germany jails convicted spy

EAST BERLIN — East Berlin's supreme military court jailed a West German woman for seven years yesterday on charges of spying for U.S. intelligence, the official news agency ADN said. The woman, Gisela Kluess, also was found guilty of working for a West German state espionage agency involved in activities directed against the security interests of East Germany, ADN said.